About FRP and the Work Experience Through Environmental Volunteering Program

FRP is a social enterprise and charity with environmental and social aims based in East London. Work Experience Through Environmental Volunteering is an FRP program, to provide work experience opportunities for volunteers aged 18-30. Participants will help us process and distribute reclaimed paint by working in our warehouse and shop, as well as working on a project during their placement, for example using our paint to enhance a space in their own community. They will also receive structured support to help them identify and progress towards their own employment and training goals.

Main tasks

- Warehouse work sorting and processing paint using hand tools, including cordless drills
- Serving customers and making sales in our shop
- Working as a member of a team to develop and deliver a project for FRP

Skills required

- Good verbal communication skills, basic literacy and numeracy
- Flexibility, reliability and punctuality
- Ability to work as a member of a team, but without constant supervision
- Ability to carry out instructions and ask for help as needed
- Ability to distinguish between different colours and types of paint
- Good spatial awareness and willingness to undertake messy, physical work

Volunteer support

- Induction and on-the-job training
- Regular structured support sessions
- Volunteer expenses (up to £3 for lunch, and £5 for travel per day)

Benefits of volunteering

- Meet new people
- Learn new skills and enhance your CV
- Gain work experience
